

Stainless Steel Wire Mesh Baguette Tray

Main features of stainless steel wire mesh baguette tray

The wire mesh design reserves enough space for excellent air circulation, the bread dough can be heated evenly, baked out with crisp crusts and soft inside.

Stainless steel screen mesh is of high quality and good durability.

Stainless steel wire frame gives extra and strong support for the whole tray, won't deform.

The non-stick silicone coating is food-safe certified. It not only brings out the baguette bread with perfect appearance, but also keeps it more easier to clean up the tray itself.

Tsingbuy has been producing and exporting this type of baguette baking tray for more than 6 years and is experienced as wire mesh baguette tray manufacturer. You can be rest assured by our product quality and service.
