

China Factory Wholesale Stylish and Fashionable Detachable Aluminum Cake Baking Mold Tube Cake Baking Pan with Detachable Design

Main features of aluminum metal cake baking mold tube cake pan for baking

1. Premium Aluminum Construction: Crafted from high-quality aluminum material, this tube cake pan ensures even heat distribution for consistent and perfectly baked cakes. The sturdy construction guarantees long-lasting performance, making it an essential tool for baking all kinds of cake desserts.
2. Stylish and Fashionable Design: The inner side of the cake pan undergoes an anodized surface treatment, while the outside is coated with a colorful finish. Choose from vibrant pink and sunny yellow options to add a touch of fashion and style to your kitchen. This eye-catching design will make your baking experience even more enjoyable.
3. Easy Demoulding and Cleaning: The detachable tube design of our cake pan makes it incredibly convenient to remove your baked creations without damaging them. Simply release the latch, and the cake will effortlessly slide out. Cleaning is a breeze too, as you can separate the tube from the pan, allowing for thorough and hassle-free cleaning.
4. Multiple Size Options: Our cake pan is available in two sizes - 6 inches and 7 inches. This versatility enables you to bake various types of cakes, like bundt cake, chiffon cake, sponge cake, cheese cake, pound cake and even bread.
5. Professional ODM&OEM Service: As a aluminum metal cake mold manufacturer in China with over 17 years experience in bakeware industry, we provide professional Original Design Manufacturing (ODM) and Original Equipment Manufacturing (OEM) services. This means we can work closely with you to customize the cake pan according to your specific requirements, ensuring it perfectly aligns with your brand or personal style.
