

European Style Baguette Baking Tray

Main features of European style baguette baking tray

1. Crafted from perforated aluminum, this pan is ideal for start-up restaurants or bakeries with a budget. The perforated design promotes better airflow around the bread while it bakes to get a crispier crust.
2. Europe style open round ends of the pan allow for perfectly rounded, brown ends on the heels of your breads, making it a must-have for baking the perfect baguette.
3. PFOA/PTFE free, the non-stick coating on this pan is safe to use in your commercial environment.
4. Non-sticking coating helps ensure the bread won't stick so your presentation remains impeccable.
5. Tsingbuy open frame baguette tray manufacturer has a professional team, good service, reliable forwarder, a great deal of experience.
