

High Quality 304 Stainless Steel Deep Food Tray Baking Sheet Pan Cookie Sheet Buffet Server Kitchen Cooking Tray

Main Features of 304 Stainless Steel Deep Food Tray Baking Sheet Pan

High Quality

This stainless steel deep sheet pan is a good replacement to aluminum baking pans for customers who have a preference to stainless steel material. This sheet pan is made of high quality thick 304 stainless steel, rust resistant and durable for many years of good baking performance.

Food Safety

This stainless steel baking tray surface is with polishing finish, which can reduce the risk of food sticking, always stay shining and easy to release food. The smooth edges and wide curling rimless design is fashion and provides extra support to the tray when baking, healthy and safe for daily baking and kitchen cooking needs.

Excellent Heat Distribution & Sturdy Performance

The stainless steel food tray is sturdy and shiny, made of thick gauge stainless steel material with heavy duty construction, not warp & dishwasher safe. The stainless steel baking tray sheets are also spread heat quickly and evenly, heats & cools quicker.

Easy Clean & Leak-Proof & Nonstick

Polishing finished stainless steel baking pan tray is non stick food. The shallow tray is excellent for baking cookies and biscuits, while the keep trays make food contained and prevent food juice flowing everywhere. The stainless steel sheet pans are also easy to clean up even in hand-wash, saving your time and labor.

Versatile Applications

The stainless steel baking tray cookies sheet pan is great for cinnamon rolls, sticky buns, brownies, corn bread and fruit cobblers and etc, food heated evenly and come out perfectly. It can also be used as cookie pan or baking pan for regular oven and toaster oven at home kitchen. Meanwhile, the high quality 304 stainless steel is also a best choice as the restaurant food trays, buffet display trays, BBQ plate etc.
