

Commercial 35-tins Non Stick Sphere Muffin Baking Tray Mini Muffin Cupcake Baking Mould Tin Pallet

Main features of 35-tin non stick sphere muffin baking tray

1. 35-Tin Design: This muffin baking pan features 35 individual spherical cavities, allowing you to bake multiple muffins or cupcakes simultaneously, saving time and effort.
2. Aluminized Steel Construction: Constructed from high-quality aluminized steel, this pan offers exceptional durability, heat distribution, and resistance to warping, ensuring long-lasting performance even with frequent use.
3. Non-Stick Coating: The non-stick coating ensures easy release of baked goods, making cleanup a breeze and eliminating the need for excessive greasing or flouring.
4. Uniform Baking: The aluminized steel material and design of the pan promote even heat distribution, resulting in uniformly baked muffins with golden brown crusts and soft, moist interiors.
5. Large Capacity: With dimensions of 400x600mm, this pan provides ample space for baking a large batch of sphere muffins or cupcakes, perfect for commercial bakeries, catering events, or large family gatherings.
6. Versatile Use: Beyond muffins and cupcakes, this pan can also be used to create various sweet or savory treats, such as cake pops, mini cheesecakes, chocolate bombs, appetizers, or mini snacks, providing versatility in your baking endeavors.
7. Professional Grade: Designed for professional use, this muffin pan meets the high standards of commercial bakeries and is suitable for home bakers seeking professional-quality results.
8. Heat Resistance: Able to withstand high temperatures, this pan is special for baking in industrial ovens. It is also suitable for use in conventional ovens.
9. Even Browning: The aluminized steel material promotes even browning across all muffins, ensuring a visually appealing presentation and consistent taste.
10. Professional ODM&OEM: Backed by Tsingbuy, who is this sphere muffin baking tray factory in China, also as a bakeware manufacturer with over 17 years experience in commercial baking pans, is providing assurance of quality and performance, giving you peace of mind with your purchase.
