Main features of 40-cup non stick French canele mold pan

Introducing our latest innovation in baking equipment, the multi-mold mini canele cake baking mold tray. This versatile tray is designed to revolutionize your baking experience with its exceptional features and durability.

1. Crafted with precision, the baking tray frame is constructed using high-quality stainless steel, ensuring long-lasting performance and resistance to corrosion. The 40 mini molds, specifically designed for canele pastries, are made from carbon steel, guaranteeing even heat distribution and perfect baking results.

2. With the ability to enhance baking efficiency, this tray is a must-have for bakeries, restaurants, and food factories. The inclusion of 40 molds in one tray allows for mass production, saving you valuable time and effort. Additionally, we offer two different canele mold sizes – 53x46mm and 65x57mm – to cater to your specific needs. If required, the tray size can also be customized to fit your baking requirements.

3. Our multi-mold mini canele cake baking mold tray features a commercial-grade non-stick coating, making it incredibly easy to demold your canele creations. The non-stick surface ensures that your pastries maintain their perfect shape, without any tearing or sticking. Rest assured, this coating is food-safe and meets all necessary standards for your peace of mind.

4. Durability is our utmost priority, which is why we have reinforced the tray frame with stainless steel and the molds with carbon steel. These materials are heat-resistant and will not deform or warp even under high-temperature baking conditions. This ensures the longevity and reliability of our baking tray, providing you with years of consistent performance.

5. As proud members of the baking industry, Tsingbuy China canele pan manufacturer is a renowned professional bakeware manufacturer with over 15 years of experience in ODM and OEM services. Our expertise and commitment to quality have earned us the trust of bakers worldwide. By choosing our multi-mold baking tray, you are making an investment in superior baking equipment that will exceed your expectations.

Upgrade your baking game with our multi-mold mini canele cake baking mold tray from Tsingbuy and experience the difference it can make in your culinary creations.
