

Factory Bulk Stocked Aluminium Non Stick Round Pizza Baking Tray Pan Pizza Plate

Main features of aluminum non stick round pizza baking tray pan pizza plate

1. Material

This baking tray is made of high-quality aluminium that is lightweight yet sturdy, making it ideal for baking purposes.

2. Shape and Size

This baking tray is round in shape and comes in various sizes, ranging from small to large, which can accommodate different amounts of food.

3. Non-Stick Coating

This baking tray is coated with best quality imported non-stick coating that allows for easy release of baked goods without the need for excessive butter or oil. This feature makes it easier to clean and maintain the tray's quality for longer periods.

4. Versatility

This baking tray is perfect for baking various food items such as cakes, pies, cookies, besides pizzas. Due to its non-stick feature, the tray can also be used for cooking foods that may otherwise stick to the surface.

5. Durability

The aluminium material used to construct this baking tray is durable and can withstand high temperatures, making it ideal for frequent use in the kitchen. The non-stick coating also ensures that the tray's surface remains scratch-free, making it ideal for long-term use.
