

Aluminized Steel Trays for Chocolate and Candy Molding

Product Description

1. This tray is made of high-quality aluminum, which is highly durable and resistant to corrosion. It is suitable for use in a variety of environments, including professional kitchens and home bakeries.

2. Aluminized The surface of the tray is treated with a special aluminized coating, which makes it easy to clean and prevents the material from sticking to the surface.

3. The tray has a uniform thickness and a smooth surface, which ensures that the chocolate or candy is released easily and without any damage.

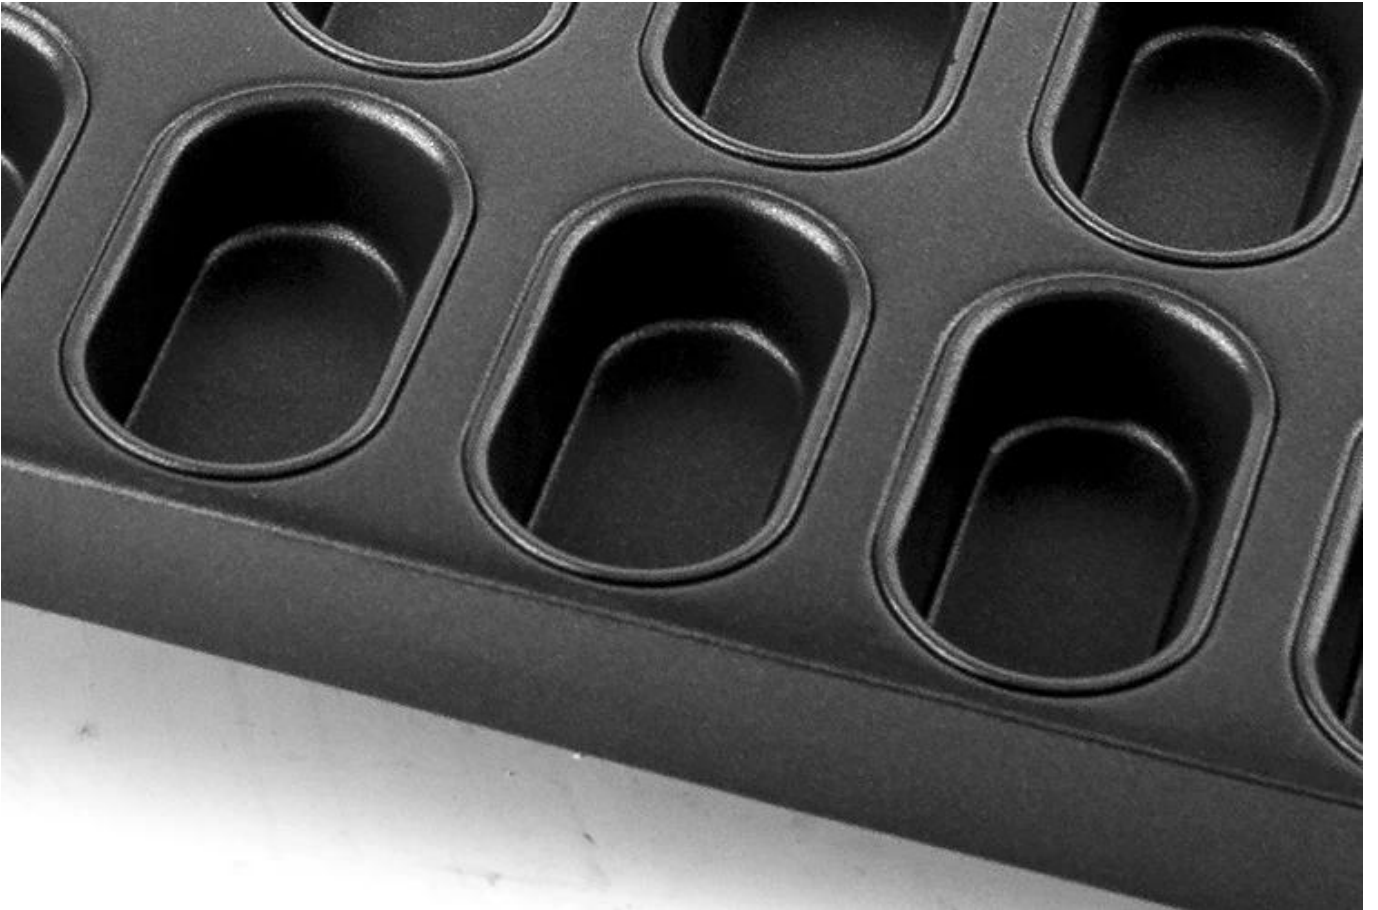

4. The tray is designed with a grid pattern, which allows for easy removal of the chocolate or candy pieces.

5. The tray is available in two sizes: a standard size and a larger size. The larger size is available here. It is suitable for molding 12 pieces of chocolate or candy.
